

THE KNIFE

Thrust into Gov. McKinley At Lima By Bushnell.

A CRUEL SLAP

That is Not thout Meaning—Gov. McKinley's Friends Are Beginning to Resent These Insults by the Foraker Crowd.

Last Friday morning Bushnell, Foraker's boy in the campaign, was advertised to be in Lima a few minutes. He arrived on the L. E. & W. on schedule time from Fostoria, just ten minutes before Gov. McKinley's train on the Pennsylvania was to reach the same place. Bushnell, whose first name is Asa, and which in ancient times meant "heeler," was escorted to a baggage truck, and from there, he, Asa, without, or with looking into the future ten minutes, made the declaration that he would under no condition travel over Ohio in a private car during the campaign and that common day coaches were good enough for him. Scarcely were the words from his lips when into the depot came the Pennsylvania train, and attached to it was the private dining and sleeping car of an official of the Toledo & Ohio Central railroad, and in this car sat Governor McKinley to whose individual use the car was assigned. Bushnell immediately moved his baggage from the platform to Gov. McKinley's car, and after that gentleman had finished his short speech this same Bushnell stepped to the rear platform of the private car and nominated McKinley for president. And then the train departed with McKinley and Bushnell standing on the rear platform of a private car, which Bushnell ten minutes before said he would under no circumstances ride in. Certainly no more cowardly thrust could have been made at the governor by Cox's tool than nominating him for president from the rear platform of a private car, within ten minutes after his statement that day coaches were good enough for him. The contemptible thrust was seen by all present, but as most of them were Bushnell adherents, they smiled a gleam of satisfaction as the knife struck.

UNION LABOR.

Not Recognized By the Republican Candidate Bushnell.

CIGAR MAKERS UNION

After Him Not—Allowed His Name and Face on a Non-Union Cigar—Organized Labor All Over Ohio Has Taken Notice of the Case.

Asa Bushnell, in his letter to Dr. P. H. Barr of this city, concerning his attitude on organized labor, says: "In employing our men we do not ask them any questions concerning labor unions or anything of that sort, but if the man is a good workman and there is work for him we employ him." This answer of Bushnell's to the charge that he is against organized labor is about as far with Thomas R. Morgan's answer to the same charge three years ago, when he was a candidate for congress in this district against Dr. Kirt. Mr. Morgan denied absolutely that he refused to employ organized labor, and he supplemented his denial with a few affidavits from some scab laborers which he obtained with some sort of persuasive power, but the affidavits of the men who were refused employment by Mr. Morgan's establishment because they belonged to labor unions weighed more in the eyes of the public than the statement of Morgan, who was an interested party and was moving heaven and earth to get into congress on the oath of a scab laborer, who would seek by questionable methods to break down a labor union. Mr. Bushnell gives an evasive answer to the question when he says "In employing our men we do not ask them any questions concerning labor unions." The question at issue is, does or does he not employ union men at his establishment? This can be answered by "yes" or "no," and the labor unions of Ohio want to know this before election day.

CIGAR MAKERS UNION

After Bushnell—Organized Labor All Over Ohio Will Aid Them.

Shortly after the Zanesville convention that nominated General Bushnell for governor, the firm of J. B. Hitt & Co., of Urbana, cigar manufacturers, sent a representative to Springfield, who asked permission of General Bushnell to name a brand of cigars after him and to use his portrait on the cigar boxes. Bushnell gave his consent and the cigars were placed on sale.

As soon as this became known in Columbus, the cigar-makers union of that city set about an investigation. The result was that the Springfield union reported that the Urbana factory had not been unionized. A committee was sent to General Bushnell with this information, and he was requested to withdraw his arrangement with the Urbana firm and not permit them to use his name or portrait. Bushnell in a few days informed the Springfield committee that the matter had gone too far, that the cigars were on the market, and it was too late for him to cancel the agreement.

The Cigarmakers' Union of Ohio has taken up the matter, and organized labor all over Ohio will take note of the matter.

IT COMES OFF.

The Populist Endorsement of Charles A. Krider

Is Announced by Secretary of State Taylor at the Behest of the Machine—The Combine Getting in its Work.

Secretary of State Taylor is deaf to the calls of justice. His partisanship got the better of him and he bows to the will of the republican machine with perfect ease. He telegraphed Thos. G. Turner, secretary of the Stark county board of elections, that the populist convention held on October 6, was the regular convention, and that the name of William H. Smyth should be placed on the official ballot as the senatorial candidate.

The populists and republicans will now be in high glee. They entered into a conspiracy together to depose Charles H. Krider.

GETTING EVEN.

How Chairman Thomas Remembers the Shaking-Fist-Under-the-Nose Episode Some Months Ago.

At the republican senatorial convention, when John H. Thomas came within half a vote of being nominated, Elias J. Williams shook his fist under Julius Williams' nose and said that under no consideration would he support John H. Thomas. How can Williams now expect the support of Thomas when he emphatically declared in the convention that he would not support Thomas even if he got the nomination? Mr. Thomas has not forgotten Williams' unkind remark and his friends in the West end will administer to Williams on the quiet such a blow on election day that it will send him headlong into oblivion.

NO DEBATE.

Republicans are talking of a debate between Brice and Foraker. Senator Brice is not on the stump and is not nominated for the United States senate. There is no proposal of a discussion with James E. Campbell. Mr. Campbell is considerably on the stump, as Gov. McKinley, Foraker et al are finding out. Senator Sherman is said to admit the Democrats will gain 80,000 over last year. Even Mr. Sherman may be wiser after election.

Governor McKinley is reported as saying in Cleveland: "Why, there isn't the shadow of a shade of doubt but that we will carry the state and elect General Bushnell by a very handsome plurality." Often the wish is father to the thought and in political affairs the future is by no means certain. The old 18th congressional district which uniformly has been giving Mr. McKinley three or four thousand majority went back on him in 1882 and elected Major J. H. Wallace. Such surprises come every once in a while, and it is possible we may see one this year. We can tell better by and bye. These immense meetings of Campbell and the enthusiasm thereat are unmistakable signs of promise. The change in public sentiment is undoubted and it is evident the tide is rising rapidly. The improvement in business and labor is making favor for the glorious democracy among the people.

DEATH RECORD.

An Estimable Citizen Passes Away in the Death of ABRAHAM KREIGHBAUM.

A Noted Figure in the County Gone to His Last Rest—A Child Dies—The Funeral Services Over Mrs. King.

Abraham Kreighbaum died at his home in North Canton Monday morning at the age of 67 years. Mr. Kreighbaum was a native of Stark county, being born near Greenstown. He spent his early life in the county. He was a son of George Kreighbaum who at one time was county commissioner. He was a model citizen, an exemplary neighbor and a kind husband and father.

His funeral occurs from his late residence at 11 a. m. sharp standard time. Interment at Uniontown.

He leaves a wife and seven children, William C., of Lake; F. G. of Green-town; D. R. of Hartsville; Chas. S. of Trump, and Mrs. Catherine Bower, of Myersville; Mrs. Isaac Heckman, of Lake; Mrs. J. M. Barr of Sterling.

MRS. BARBARA SCHUFFEL. Mrs. Barbara Schuffel, grandmother of Dr. Schuffel, of this city, died Sunday at her home in Osnaburg at the age of 88 years, from the effects of dropsy. Mrs. Schuffel was a pioneer in Osnaburg, well known by everybody in that vicinity. Her death will leave sadness in many homes where she was a favorite. The funeral was held Monday afternoon, and interment in the Osnaburg cemetery.

MAY BE MISTAKEN.

If any of our friends imagine they are going to wipe out the democratic party this year or next, and build on the ruins their arrangements and rise to glory and power, we advise them not to count too top-folly on this castle in Spain or in the air. "The best laid schemes of mice and men gang aft aglee." Even political ambition and aspiration form no exception. The "people's party" movement of 1873, that was going to swallow the democratic party as a whole and all at once did not materialize to that extent, their candidate for governor, Judge Collins, of Cincinnati, not receiving ten thousand votes quite in the state. That year the democracy of Ohio elected William Allen governor, and secured the legislature in both branches. That peoples party was not heard of after, although it was formidable at first. The party of Jefferson and Jackson is not easily killed off, standing as it does on the rock of the constitution.

The personal abuse heaped on Senator Brice through the columns of republican papers is passed by with magnanimity by democratic journals. The term Bricecrats is freely applied, and we suppose those using this and other similar terms think they are both witty and sharp. We cannot see any argument in all this, nor yet dignity; but if it affords our opponents pleasure and they think it is smart, we say proceed. Senator Brice is recognized as a gentleman and no blackguard nor blackguardism will injure his standing among decent people. He is as much a citizen of Ohio as Senator Sherman and we are confident pays as much tax in Ohio as his colleague.

ALL INTACT

Was the Property of the Late A. H. Douds.

His Possessions at the Time of His Awful Death in the Hands of the Coroner—Robbery Theory Explored. Messrs. W. B. Lindsay and William Levinger, of Durbin, Wright & Co's, went to Mineral Point Sunday to inquire into the matter relative to the alleged robbery of the late Alvin H. Douds previous to the fatal accident.

The gentlemen found that Mr. Douds took supper at Bolivar and left there at 6:45 on the evening of the accident. He was traced through Zoar and direct to Mineral Point.

Anthony Shaffer, a farmer, found the watch belonging to Mr. Douds the following morning and took particular pains to ascertain whether the horse had run away or not. He found that the carriage had kept in the middle of the road and there were no tracks to indicate that the horse was galloping as if running away. The pocket book, watch and other valuables belonging to Mr. Douds were all found in the care of Acting Coroner John M. Tracy and the opinion is that no robbery had been attempted.

MAD MUSICIANS

Republicans Go to Summit County For Music—Minglewood Band Sanctioned.

Asa Jones, the republican candidate for lieutenant governor, recently held a meeting at Canal Fulton. Of course there was to be band music. The committee in charge of the meeting hired the Manchester band, of Manchester, Summit county. In thus going outside of Stark county for a band the committee entirely ignored the Minglewood band of North Lawrence. The Minglewood band is a Stark county band, and is composed of an exceptionally fine lot of young men. They have all felt the snub and are in no good frame of mind over it.

WILL EXTEND.

That Troublesome Navarre Line May Receive Attention.

And be Built Soon, According to President William A. Lynch's Statement.

President William Lynch, of the Canton-Massillon Electric Railway Company, in conference with a committee of the Massillon council, has announced that he fully intends extending the line to Navarre. Two years ago the company secured a franchise for this purpose, and gave a bond of $2,000 to complete the line within one year. This bond has been twice forfeited and never collected, the council probably thinking work would begin each month.

HE SHOULD EXPLAIN.

Jacob Geib's Friends Think He Has Been

Improperly Represented and Wonder Why He Doesn't Explain, Now That He Has an Opportunity.

Jacob Geib, the republican candidate for treasurer, if he wished to fill an aching public void, would endeavor to throw a little light on the formalities attending the transfers of the books and monies of Minishillen township, two years ago, when he was succeeded by Frank Rebboldt. He is such a nice man and is making such a diligent canvass on the lines of extreme rectitude, that of course the little misunderstanding that caused so much gossip among the townspeople and anxiety among his friends, can undoubtedly be readily elucidated.

Mr. Geib should explain.

COMING BACK.

Democratic Ranks Being Swelled Steadily and Rapidly

By Those Who For a Time Were Led Astray by Fulsome and False Gospel—A Striking Instance.

William Stuck, a steel worker, who has been voting the republican ticket for the past two years, has returned to the party of Jefferson and Jackson. He said that the republicans made him believe that if the tariff was reduced it meant hard times and no work.

He says that the republican theory that working men would get starvation wages in case the Wilson bill became a law has been exploded. Workmen now see that mills and factories are now opening up and many of them are compelled to run night and day in order to fill their orders.

All this is taking place under the Wilson bill. He also says that there are many more workmen like himself who were hoodwinked into voting the republican ticket two years ago, but all of them are coming back to the democratic party and propose to work for Campbell and the democratic ticket from now until election day.

EXTRAVAGANCE

The Watch Cry of the Republican Board of INFIRMARY DIRECTORS.

How the Party Cried Retrenchment and When Given Control Conducted Affairs So Extravagantly That Bond Issues Were Necessary.

That the present board of infirmary directors is the most extravagant ever known in the history of Stark county, is admitted on all sides.

When J. W. Pontius was superintendent of the infirmary, the cry was raised that it cost too much to keep the county poor. On this issue a republican infirmary director was elected two years ago, in place of Edward Saxauer, the democratic candidate.

The republicans promised great things in case Mr. Saxauer was defeated. It was claimed if the republicans secured control of the board Mr. Pontius would be dismissed as superintendent, and a more economical administration of the infirmary would be the result. The republicans were successful, and they kept their promise as far as discharging J. W. Pontius, the best superintendent the infirmary ever had. J. C. Gerwig was elected to succeed him, and the record of the present incumbent is too well known to need much comment at this time.

The republican board of infirmary directors that was to be so saving, soon came to the conclusion that with a man like Gerwig, they could not hope to run the institution, and keep the expenditure within the tax levy. Bonds in the sum of $6,000 were issued to meet current expenses, and again $12,000 worth of bonds were issued for improvements. This was something never before heard of in the history of the infirmary, and simply shows the extravagance practiced at the present time.

WHAT THEY EXPENDED. During the year ending September 1, 1895, the infirmary directors expended $33,952. The previous year they got away with $32,297. These were republican years.

In 1893 when J. W. Pontius was superintendent the expenses were $29,347. In 1892 the cost was $20,707 and in 1891 $23,354. These were under democratic rule.

The "saving" in republican years is simply amazing, the only trouble being that it is on the wrong side of the ledger.

AN INFIRMARY DIRECTOR. It is to be elected this fall, and the democratic candidate is Michael Miller, of Osnaburg. He is strictly honest and will legislate in the best interests of the taxpayers. He has no cattle to sell to the county, and will not allow any other infirmary director to violate the law. A vote for Michael Miller means an honest administration, and if he is elected it will not be necessary to issue bonds to run the infirmary or for the directors to illegally sell cattle to the institution.

A NOVEL IDEA. It is free, and doubly interests everybody who has aches or pains, or who is weak and sickly. Any one can learn the surest and quickest means to get strong and well by accepting that splendid free offer of the great specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City. He has established a system of letter correspondence through which all sick and suffering people can learn exactly what ails them, and how to get well, without expense and without leaving their homes. All they have to do is to write to the Doctor, stating each symptom from which they are suffering, and he will answer their letter, explaining their case thoroughly, telling just what the trouble is, and what to do to be cured. He gives the greatest care and attention to every letter, and tells the cause of each symptom so plainly that patients understand instantly just what ails them. And all this costs nothing. It is a splendid opportunity for those who cannot afford the time or expense to go to the city. Dr. Greene makes a specialty of curing patients through letter correspondence. He is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, and is the discoverer of that wonderful remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervous Blood and Nerve Tonic. Those who write to him get cured.

ALL DEMOCRATS.

The Candidates For the Legislature Interviewed by the Commercial Gazette.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette sent out letters to all the democratic candidates for members of the legislature, asking them who they favored for United States senator in case the legislature is democratic. The answer of the two candidates from Stark county are interesting. They are taken from the columns of the Commercial Gazette and are as follows:

Alliance, O., October 16.—I am now laboring for the success of the entire democratic ticket, and will consider the U. S. senatorship only after I am elected.

Both Mr. Williams and Mr. McCadden say they are democrats and are now working only for the success of the entire democratic ticket, the senatorship to be considered hereafter. This shows that they are not pledged to any man but are in position to serve their constituents.

The fourteen candidates from Hamilton county join in the list, and say that they are not pledged and stand ready to support the most available candidate. The answers from all over Ohio are in the same strain. All say they are now for democratic success, the senatorship to be considered after a victory is won.

This ought to silence all the talk about Brice having this candidate and that candidate pledged. Such talk is rank nonsense and ought not to deceive any democratic single minute.

BUSHNELL SCORED

By Gov. McKinley's Private Secretary, Jimmy Boyle.

A RIB-ROASTER

Straight From the Shoulder—McKinley's Private Secretary Sizzed Up Bushnell as a Corruptionist—A Scathing Opinion of the Republican Candidate For Governor.

On August 5, 1884, James Boyle, now the private secretary of Governor McKinley, was a correspondent for the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette. On that date he wrote an article from Springfield, signed "J. B.," in which he gave an account of the republican primaries in Clarke county, where Bushnell and Keifer were rival candidates for the congressional nomination in the Springfield district. In that article Mr. Boyle said: "If one-half the stories heard on every street corner are true, then the republicans must shelve Bushnell as well as Keifer. To mince words would be but to endorse the greatest disgrace ever attempted to be fastened on a party. Should Bushnell be nominated, hundreds of the best republicans in the county will bolt him, and there will be great danger that the state and national tickets will run behind."

... Captain Bushnell has the support of the daily press. It is an open secret that he paid for it. Before the Globe swallowed the Republic, it was friendly to Keifer. Since that gastrointestinal feat, it has been a vigorous supporter of Bushnell. "I do not wish to convey the impression that Keifer is the angelic course in this fight. He spent all the money he could rake together, but the other, (Bushnell), had several millions at his back. Taken all together, the convention so far is anything but a credit to the republican party."

This was James Boyle's estimate of "General" Asa Bushnell, the republican candidate for governor. A republican correspondent of a republican newspaper sized up the gentleman who is now at the head of the republican state ticket as a boulder and corruptionist. Can the loop and change his spots?

Job work a specialty at this office.

The above emblem, the Rooster, appears at the head of the democratic ticket.

When you go to the polls put an X mark in the circle under the Rooster. Do not make any mistakes and thereby lose your vote. The X mark in the circle, as above, does the work. Put it there and be happy.

CURES DYSPEPSIA.

A New Preparation, Pleasant, Harmless, Simple, Prepared Solely for Weak Digestion.

A new remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion, very highly recommended by Dr. Harland and Dr. Jenkinson and other prominent physicians is a combination in tablet form of vegetable and fruit essences, pure aseptic pepsin and Golden Seal. One of these tablets should be dissolved in the mouth after each meal and according to Dr. Jenkinson the effect seems to be that the food is perfectly and promptly digested, before it has time to sour and ferment, which causes all the mischief.

So popular have these tablets become with people who have any form of indigestion that they are now sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are not a secret patent medicine, but as related above, contain vegetable and fruit essences, pepsin and Golden Seal in a form absolutely safe and pleasant to take.

A few of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be carried in the pocket and taken after meals and whenever there is any pain or discomfort in the stomach. They cure sour stomach, heartburn, bloating, gas, palpitation and all symptoms arising from disordered digestion. Will cure any stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach. All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cent for full sized package, or sent prepaid by mail from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.
